Given a general list of specifications and goals, we can recommend a design complete with the right products and features to yield the targeted results. Our selection of traditional or custom designed columbarium can be combined with benches, vases, statuary, and ossuary to meet your specific needs. The most effective cremation garden incorporates a variety of products allowing families to choose a memorial option most fitting to commemorate their loved one's life.

Simply provide the details and goals of your property development project and we will prepare a proposal with a price quote. Items for you to consider include the area to be used, acreage, accessibility, product options and size (such as the number of niche spaces), and other features.

Wilbert Memorials can often provide a complete color rendering to scale of the property to be developed to assist pre-construction sales.
